Auditors welcome!

Kathy Connelly is a highly respected international dressage rider, trainer, coach, "S" judge, and USDF Honorary Instructor. She represented the United States at the World Cup in Sweden, and was the highest placed Grand Prix rider on the U.S. Bronze Medal Team at the North American championships. She is known for her amicable personality and non-intimidating training style. Kathy's success is evident through her work with the U.S. team riders and amateurs who have won many titles. She trains amateurs at every level. In addition, she has served as coach of the World Equestrian Games and the World Cup and as coach of the individual silver medalist at the Pan American Games, a U.S. champion at the North American Young Rider championships, and the United States silver medal Young Rider team in Australia. She is vice chair of the USET High Performance Dressage Committee and has served as a USET Olympic and World Games Selector. She has provided live commentary internationally and nationally for events such as the 2010 World Equestrian Games and the 2013 and 2014 U.S. Dressage Finals.
